BACKGROUND

Basel III regulatory capital rules established the definition of regulatory capital elements and minimum capital ratios, regulatory capital buffers above those minimums, a common equity tier 1 ratio, a supplementary leverage ratio and the rules for calculating risk-weighted assets. Basel III includes two comprehensive methodologies for calculating risk-weighted assets: 1) a general standardized approach and 2) a more risk-sensitive advanced approaches. Effective December 31, 2019, with the passing of the “Prudential Standards for Large Bank Holding Companies, Savings and Loan Holding Companies, and Foreign Banking Organizations” rule, U.S. Bancorp (the “Company”) is classified as a Category III banking organization. Therefore, the Company is only required to utilize the general standardized approach of the regulatory capital requirements.

OVERVIEW

The Company, based in Minneapolis, Minnesota, serves millions of customers locally, nationally and globally through a diversified mix of businesses: Consumer and Business Banking; Payment Services; Corporate & Commercial Banking; and Wealth Management and Investment Services.

This document, and certain of the Company’s public filings, present the Pillar 3 Disclosures in compliance with Basel III as described in Subsections 61-63 of the Capital Adequacy—Basel III Final Rule (the “Rule”). The Company’s 2022 Annual Report (“Annual Report”) included in the Company’s Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2022 (“Form 10-K”) and its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2023 (“Form 10-Q”) filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission contain management’s discussion of the overall corporate risk profile of the Company and related management strategies. The Pillar 3 Disclosures should be read in conjunction with the Annual Report, Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and the Consolidated Financial Statements for Bank Holding Companies - FR Y-9C. The Company’s Pillar 3 Disclosures Matrix (see Appendix A) specifies where all the disclosures required by the Rule are located. The Pillar 3 Disclosures have not been audited by the Company’s external auditors. The Rule applies only to the consolidated Company, with the exception that subsidiary depository institutions must disclose capital ratios.

CORPORATE GOVERNANCE

Managing risks is an essential part of successfully operating a financial services company. The Company’s Board of Directors has approved a risk management framework which establishes governance and risk management requirements for all risk-taking activities. This framework includes Company and business line risk appetite statements which set boundaries for the types and amount of risk that may be undertaken in pursuing business objectives and initiatives. The Board of Directors, primarily through its Risk Management Committee, oversees performance relative to the risk management framework, risk appetite statements, and other policy requirements.

The Executive Risk Committee (“ERC”), which is chaired by the Chief Risk Officer and includes the Chief Executive Officer and other members of the executive management team, oversees execution against the risk management framework and risk appetite statements. The ERC focuses on current and emerging risks, including strategic and reputation risks, by directing timely and comprehensive actions. Senior operating committees have also been established, each responsible for overseeing a specified category of risk.

Upon closing of the MUFG Union Bank, N.A. (“MUB”) acquisition, the Company’s risk management framework applied to the legal entities acquired from Mitsubishi UFJ Financial Group, Inc., including MUB, up until its merger into U.S. Bank National Association (“USBNA”). Updates were made to align the acquired entities with the Company’s risk appetite and connect the elements of their respective risk governance and reporting into the Company’s existing risk management framework. Upon completing the merger of MUB into USBNA, which occurred on May 26, 2023, the MUB risk governance and reporting framework is no longer applicable. The Company’s most prominent risk exposures are credit, interest rate, market, liquidity, operational, compliance, strategic, and reputation. Credit risk is the risk of loss associated with a change in the credit profile or the failure of a borrower or counterparty to meet its contractual obligations. Interest rate risk is the current or prospective risk to earnings and capital, or market valuations, arising from the impact of changes in interest rates. Market risk arises from fluctuations in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and security prices that may result in changes in the values of financial instruments, such as trading and available-for-sale securities, mortgage loans held for sale, mortgage servicing rights (“MSRs”) and derivatives that are accounted for on a fair value basis. Liquidity risk is the risk that financial condition or overall safety and soundness is adversely affected by the Company’s inability, or perceived inability, to meet its cash flow obligations in a timely and complete manner in either normal or stressed conditions. Operational risk is the risk to current or projected financial condition and resilience arising from inadequate or failed internal processes or systems, people (including human errors or misconduct), or adverse external events, including the risk of loss resulting from breaches in data security. Operational risk can also include the risk of loss due to failures by third parties with which the Company does business. Compliance risk is the risk that the Company may suffer legal or regulatory sanctions, financial losses and reputational damage if it fails to adhere to compliance requirements and the Company's compliance policies. Strategic risk is the risk to current or projected financial condition and resilience arising from adverse business decisions, poor implementation of business decisions, or lack of responsiveness to changes in the banking industry and operating environment. Reputation risk is the risk to current or anticipated earnings, capital, or franchise or enterprise value arising from negative public opinion. This risk may impair the Company's competitiveness by affecting its ability to establish new relationships or services or continue serving existing relationships. In addition to the risks identified above, other risk factors exist that may impact the Company. Refer to "Risk Factors" in the Annual Report for a detailed discussion of these factors.

The Company's Board of Directors and management-level governance committees are supported by a "three lines of defense" model for establishing effective checks and balances. The first line of defense, the business lines, manages risks in conformity with established limits and policy requirements. In turn, business line leaders and their risk officers establish programs to ensure conformity with these limits and policy requirements. The second line of defense, which includes the Chief Risk Officer's organization as well as policy and oversight activities of corporate support functions, translates risk appetite and strategy into actionable risk limits and policies. The second line of defense monitors first line of defense conformity with limits and policies and provides reporting and escalation of emerging risks and other concerns to senior management and the Risk Management Committee of the Board of Directors. The third line of defense, internal audit, is responsible for providing the Audit Committee of the Board of Directors and senior management with independent assessment and assurance regarding the effectiveness of the Company's governance, risk management, and control processes.

INTERNAL CAPITAL ADEQUACY ASSESSMENT PROCESS ("ICAAP")

The Company's ICAAP is a component of its Basel Program. The Company manages its capital to multiple minimum thresholds and measures consistent with the Company's strategic objectives, business model and capital plan. Expectations of internal and external stakeholders are integral, and the capital goals and targets are calibrated considering internally developed models that ensure adequate coverage for all material quantitative and qualitative risks, minimum regulatory requirements, supervisory stress testing expectations and rating agency and counterparty perspectives.

The Company is committed to managing capital to maintain strong protection for depositors and creditors, and for maximum shareholder benefit in order to achieve the Company's broader goals, which are as follows:

- Ensure the Company's safety and soundness;
- Maintain access to the debt and capital markets so the Company may continue to provide exceptional service to its customers and fulfill, without interruption, its obligations as a credit intermediary;
- Serve as a source of managerial and financial strength to its subsidiaries; and
- Ensure that the Company continues to be in a position to conduct its business in an environment of economic or financial stress.

The Company's ICAAP, the identification of material risks and how those material risks inform capital adequacy, is conducted via the Company's stress testing program. During this process, the Company's material risks, informed by the risk identification process, are critical to the scenario design process and the development of the Company's internal stress scenario. The results of these forward-looking scenarios inform the Company's regulatory and internally defined capital adequacy relative to the Company's risk profile and risk appetite.

REGULATORY CAPITAL ADEQUACY RATIOS

The Company also manages its capital to exceed regulatory capital requirements for well-capitalized financial institutions. The Company's applicable capital requirement for regulatory and supervisory purposes is based upon the ratios determined under the standardized approach.

Banking regulators define capital requirements for banks and financial services holding companies expressed in the form of a common equity tier 1 capital ratio, a tier 1 capital ratio, a total risk-based capital ratio, a leverage ratio and for advanced approaches banks and Category III banks, a supplementary leverage ratio. The current minimum required levels for these ratios are 4.5 percent, 6.0 percent, 8.0 percent, 4.0 percent, and 3.0 percent, respectively, while the requirements for an insured depository institution to be considered “well-capitalized” are 6.5 percent, 8.0 percent, 10.0 percent, 5.0 percent, and 3.0 percent, respectively. Using the standardized approach rule the Company’s common equity tier 1 ratio was 9.1 percent at June 30, 2023— above the Company’s targeted ratio of 8.5 percent.

The Company’s total shareholders’ equity was $53.0 billion at June 30, 2023, compared with $50.8 billion at December 31, 2022. The increase was primarily the result of corporate earnings and changes in unrealized gains and losses on available-for-sale investment securities included in other comprehensive income (loss), partially offset by dividends paid. In compliance with the Rule, the Company reviewed the aggregate amount of surplus capital of insurance subsidiaries included in the regulatory capital of the consolidated group and has determined it was not material. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis—Capital Management” in the Annual Report and Form 10-Q for further discussion on capital management.

In addition to capital ratios defined by banking regulators, the Company considers various other measures when evaluating capital utilization and adequacy. These measures are viewed by management as additional useful methods to reflect the level of capital available to withstand unexpected market or economic conditions. Presentation of these measures allows investors, analysts, and banking regulators to assess the Company’s capital position relative to other financial services companies. Certain of these measures differ from the currently effective capital ratios principally in that these ratios are subject to transitional provisions, which temporarily exclude a portion of the impact of the 2020 adoption of accounting guidance related to the impairment of financial instruments based on the Current Expected Credit Loss (“CECL”) methodology. These measures are not defined in generally accepted accounting principles (“GAAP”) or are not currently effective or defined in federal banking regulations. As a result, these measures disclosed by the Company may be considered non-GAAP financial measures.

Stress Capital Buffer

Effective October 1, 2020, the Federal Reserve Board (“FRB”) introduced a new Stress Capital Buffer (“SCB”) which replaced the capital conservation buffer. The SCB is calculated based on 1) a decrease in the Company’s Common Equity Tier 1 Capital under the severely adverse scenario in the FRB’s annual supervisory stress test and related Comprehensive Capital Analysis and Review (“CCAR”), plus 2) four quarters of planned common stock dividends as a percentage of risk-weighted assets subject to a floor of 2.5 percent. A company’s SCB is added to the minimum capital requirement noted above for the risk-based capital ratios and represents the level of capital where restrictions on distributions and discretionary bonuses begin. The Company is currently subject to an SCB requirement of 2.5 percent based on its 2023 stress results.

The FRB, OCC and FDIC also adopted a final rule revising the definition of “eligible retained income” for purposes of the SCB and other capital buffer requirements. This revision reduces the likelihood a banking organization is suddenly subject to abrupt and restrictive distribution limitations in a scenario where the Company’s ratios fall within its applicable minimum-plus-buffer requirements. The change to the definition of eligible retained income allows banking organizations to more freely use their capital and leverage buffers and supports banking organizations' lending activity and other financial intermediation activities to avoid compounding negative impacts in the financial markets. Under the final rule, eligible retained income is the greater of (i) the banking organization's net income for the four preceding calendar quarters, net of any distributions and associated tax effects not already reflected in net income, and (ii) the average of the banking organization's net income over the preceding four quarters. The Company's eligible retained income at June 30, 2023, was $2.5 billion based on the Company's income net of distributions.

Table 3 Supplementary Leverage Ratio

Advanced approaches banks and Category III banks are required to report the Supplementary Leverage Ratio ("SLR") defined as tier 1 capital divided by the total leverage exposure inclusive of both on- and off-balance sheet exposures. As a Category III banking organization, the Company is required to maintain an SLR of at least 3.0 percent. At June 30, 2023, the Company's and U.S. Bank National Association's SLR exceeded the requirement with ratios of 6.2 and 7.2 percent, respectively, compared to 6.4 percent and 6.5 percent, respectively, at December 31, 2022.

STANDARDIZED APPROACH RISK-WEIGHTED ASSETS

Risk-weighted assets (“RWA”) represent an institution’s assets and off-balance sheet exposures, weighted according to the risk associated with each exposure category. The risk-weighted asset calculation is used in determining the institution’s capital requirements.

The standardized approach defines a risk-weight to assign to each credit exposure.

Standardized approach risk-weighted assets were $473.4 billion at June 30, 2023, compared with $496.5 billion at December 31, 2022. The decrease in RWA was primarily driven by decreases in corporate and residential mortgage exposures as well as a decrease in off balance sheet exposures

Credit Risk Mitigation The Company’s underwriting approach is to grant credit on the basis of capacity to repay rather than placing primary reliance on credit risk mitigation. Mitigation is nevertheless an important aspect of effective risk management. Various risk mitigation techniques are used by the Company, including collateral, guarantees and, to a limited extent, credit derivatives.

The Company has a process that takes into account the risk-reducing effects of collateral in support of exposures including, but not limited to, cash, working capital, depreciable assets and real estate. Unsecured exposures generally result in larger losses compared to secured exposures.

The Company may use credit default swaps (“CDS”) to manage the credit risk of certain large wholesale loan exposures, with the goal of reducing concentrations in individual names. CDS are subject to credit risk associated with counterparties to the contracts.

Credit risk mitigants are valued to monitor and ensure they continue to provide the secure repayment source anticipated at the time they were taken. Company policy prescribes the frequency of valuation based on the volatility of the collateral. Valuation methods range from the use of market indices to individual professional inspection.

Counterparty Credit Risk of OTC Derivative Contracts, Repo-Style Transactions and Eligible Margin Loans

Counterparty exposure arises from OTC derivatives, repurchase agreements, securities lending and borrowing and other similar products and activities. The exposure amount depends on the value of underlying market factors (e.g., interest rates and foreign exchange rates), which can be volatile and uncertain in nature.

The Company reduces its counterparty exposure related to derivative contracts by centrally clearing all eligible derivatives. All other credit exposure is approved either on a transaction level basis, or under credit limits supporting bilateral trades governed by appropriate master trading agreements. The primary element of the credit approval process is a detailed risk assessment of every credit exposure associated with a counterparty. The Company's risk assessment procedures consider both the credit worthiness of the counterparty and the risks related to the specific type of credit facility or exposure. The Company manages the credit risk of its derivative positions by diversifying its positions among various counterparties, entering into master netting arrangements with counterparties where possible, requiring collateral and, in certain cases, though insignificant, transferring the counterparty credit risk related to interest rate swaps to third parties through the use of risk participation arrangements. Credit exposures are monitored daily for counterparties with an established Credit Support Annex ("CSA") to ensure collateral levels are appropriately sized to cover risk, and prior to execution of an initial trade for any counterparty to ensure it does not exceed the approved credit limit for each counterparty.

The Company uses the current exposure to calculate exposure at default ("EAD") and determine risk-weighted assets and capital requirements for counterparty risk. EAD is calculated for each counterparty with an International Swaps and Derivatives Association ("ISDA") Master Agreement with the Company using the collateral haircut approach in the current exposure methodology.

For further information on counterparty credit risk, refer to the "Use of Derivatives to Manage Interest Rate and Other Risks" subsection in the "Management's Discussion and Analysis" section of the Annual Report and Form 10-Q.

Collateral To calculate a counterparty's net risk position for counterparty credit risk, the Company revalues all financial instruments and associated collateral positions on a daily basis. Collateral positions are monitored by a dedicated group who manages a process to ensure calls for collateral and exposure reductions are made promptly. Processes exist for the resolution of trades where the level of collateral is disputed, or the collateral sought is not received.

Eligible collateral types are documented by a CSA to the ISDA Master Agreement and are controlled under the Company's general credit policies. A valuation haircut policy reflects the fact collateral may fall in value between the date the collateral is called and the date of liquidation or enforcement. In practice, most of the Company's collateral held as credit risk mitigation under a CSA is either cash or U.S. government securities.

Credit ratings downgrade Certain CSAs to master arrangements provide for rating dependent triggers requiring additional collateral if a counterparty's rating is downgraded. The Company also enters into master arrangements providing for termination upon a party's rating downgrade.

The Company analyzes and monitors its potential contingent payment obligations resulting from a rating downgrade in its stress testing approach for liquidity risk on an ongoing basis. At June 30, 2023, the additional collateral required to be posted for a three-notch downgrade of U.S. Bank National Association would be $41.2 million. No additional collateral would be required for a three-notch downgrade of the parent company, U.S. Bancorp.

The following table summarizes the netting and collateral positions of the Company's derivatives and securities financing transactions ("SFT") using the Current Exposure Method. As defined by the Rule, the gross current credit exposure is calculated as the greater of the positive mark-to-market of the derivative or zero (asset derivatives).

(a) In addition to the current fair value for asset derivatives, EAD includes amounts for the potential future exposure which is calculated on both asset and liability derivatives.

(b) The notional amount of credit derivatives was $14.2 billion at June 30, 2023 and $11.1 billion at December 31, 2022.

(c) The gross positive fair value of derivative contracts averaged $7.3 billion for the second quarter of 2023 and $8.1 billion for the fourth quarter of 2022. The gross positive fair value of SFT contracts averaged $8.8 billion for the second quarter of 2023 and $7.8 billion for the fourth quarter of 2022.

Securitization The disclosures in this section refer to securitizations held in the banking book and the regulatory capital on these exposures calculated according to the Rule. A participant in the securitization market is typically an originator, investor, or sponsor. The Company's primary securitization-related activity is investing in products originated by third parties and entering into structured lending transactions with clients as an originator. U.S. Bancorp has not acted in the capacity as a sponsor. Securitization exposures held in the banking book include asset-backed securities, loans and lines of credit. The Company has transferred credit risk of certain lending portfolios synthetically using derivatives and recognizes the credit risk mitigation benefits accordingly.

The Company calculates the regulatory capital requirement for securitization exposures in accordance with the hierarchy of approaches prescribed in the Rule. The Company utilizes the Simplified Supervisory Formula Approach ("SSFA") to determine RWA for the majority of its securitization exposures. The SSFA framework considers the Company's seniority in the securitization structure and risk factors inherent in the underlying assets.

As presented in Table 6 below, the Company's total securitization exposures at June 30, 2023, were $26.0 billion compared to $16.3 billion at December 31, 2022.

(c) The capital impact of RWA is calculated by multiplying risk weighted assets by the minimum total risk-based capital ratio of 8%.

Equity Securities Not Subject to Market Risk Rule The Company had total equity exposures of approximately $20.6 billion, with $14.7 billion in individual equities and $5.9 billion in equity funds at June 30, 2023. The majority of the individual equity investments are related to the Company's community reinvestment activities, including tax-advantaged investments made through U.S. Bancorp Impact Finance. The Company uses the Simple Risk-Weight Approach for its individual equity securities.

Equity exposures in equity funds consist of Bank Owned Life Insurance ("BOLI"), private equity, money market and other equity funds. The Company uses the Full Look-Through Approach for BOLI assets in separate and hybrid accounts. Investment guidelines specify objectives and constraints for separate and hybrid account BOLI investment funds, requirements, and duration parameters. In compliance with these guidelines, underlying investment exposures include Treasury, agency, asset-backed, and mortgage-backed securities and corporate notes and bonds.

Non-marketable equity securities are generally recorded either at historical cost or by using the equity method. Details of the Company's accounting policy for equity investments and the valuation of financial instruments are provided in Note 1—Significant Accounting Policies in the Annual Report.

Marketable equity securities are generally recorded as available-for-sale and carried at fair value with unrealized net gains or losses reported within accumulated other comprehensive income (loss) in shareholders' equity. For regulatory capital purposes unrealized gains are excluded from tier 1 capital.

Equity securities maintained in the trading account are reported at fair value with changes in fair value recorded in earnings. At June 30, 2023, the Company did not have material equity exposure in the trading account.

The Company had no realized gains from the sales and liquidations of equity securities during the first quarter of 2023.

Table 7 summarizes the Company's equity securities not subject to the market risk rule. Latent revaluation gains/losses are unrealized gains/losses on nonpublic equity securities recorded at cost; these latent revaluation gains/losses are not recognized in the Company's financial statements. Latent revaluation gains were $22 million and $12 million at June 30, 2023, and December 31, 2022, respectively.

MARKET RISK

In addition to interest rate risk, the Company is exposed to other forms of market risk, including: 1) trading activities which support customers' strategies to manage their foreign currency, interest rate risk and funding activities; 2) hedging activities related to mortgage loans held for sale and MSRs; and 3) valuation of the Company's investment portfolio. Market risk risk-weighted assets for trading activities increased to $3.7 billion at June 30, 2023, compared to $3.3 billion at December 31, 2022, due to an increase in loan trading and capital markets activity. Refer to the "Market Risk Management" section of the "Management's Discussion and Analysis" section of the Annual Report and Form 10-Q for further discussion of market risk associated with client related trading and mortgage hedging.

CREDIT RISK: GENERAL DISCLOSURES

The Company's strategy for credit risk management includes well-defined, centralized credit policies, uniform underwriting criteria, and ongoing risk monitoring and review processes for all commercial and consumer credit exposures. The strategy also emphasizes industry, geographic and customer level diversification, regular credit examinations and management reviews of loans exhibiting credit quality deterioration. The Company's credit risk management strategy, including its rating system, is subject to an independent review function to ensure the control mechanisms are operating as intended. For further detail on the Company's general credit risk management, see the "Credit Risk Management" section of the "Management's Discussion and Analysis" section of the Annual Report and Form 10-Q.

Disclosures included in this section are presented under the interpretation that the Rule's definition of "major types of credit exposures" corresponds to the definition used in the Company's Annual Report and Form 10-Q. The tables report balance sheet classifications consistent with the Annual Report and Form 10-Q. Credit risk associated with loans, debt securities, commitments to extend credit and letters of credit are presented in this section. Credit risk associated with other off-balance sheet commitments and OTC derivatives are presented in other tables consistent with the Company's disclosures in the Annual Report and Form 10-Q. See the Company's Pillar 3 Disclosures Matrix for the location of other off-balance sheet credit risk disclosures.

The Company categorizes its loan portfolio into two segments, 1) commercial lending and 2) consumer lending, which are the level it develops and documents a systematic methodology to determine the allowance for credit losses based on expected credit losses given current credit quality and reasonable and supportable economic forecasts. The Company further disaggregates its loans into various classes based on underlying risk characteristics. The commercial lending segment has two classes, commercial and commercial real estate loans. The consumer lending segment has three classes, residential mortgages, credit card loans and other retail loans. Trends in delinquency and nonperforming ratios are an indicator, among other considerations, of credit risk within the Company's loan portfolios.

Table 8 provides industry distribution by major types of credit exposures inclusive of loans, contractual commitments to extend credit and letters of credit. This differs from the loan distribution by major types of credit exposure disclosed in the Company's Annual Report, which includes only outstanding loans.

The Company's investment securities portfolio includes U.S. Treasury and agencies, agency mortgage-backed securities, and obligations of state and political subdivisions (municipal securities). The most important feature management relies on when assessing credit risk for U.S. Treasury and agencies and agency mortgage-backed securities is the guarantee of the federal government or its agencies. Geography is one of the factors the Company considers in managing its investment in municipal securities. Table 10 shows the Company's municipal securities distribution throughout the major regions of the United States.

Table 11 provides a maturity distribution by loan category for loans, contractual commitments to extend credit and letters of credit. The contractual amounts of commitments to extend credit and letters of credit represent the Company's maximum exposure to credit loss, in the event of default by the borrower if the borrower were to fully draw against the commitment. The Company manages this credit risk by using the same credit policies it applies to loans. Management assesses the borrower's credit worthiness to determine the necessary collateral, which may include marketable securities, receivables, inventory, equipment, and real estate. Refer to the Annual Report and Form 10-Q for further details.

In addition to industry, the Company uses the geography of the borrower's business or property location in the case of real estate secured loans, among other key risk characteristics, to determine estimates about the likelihood of default by the borrowers and the severity of loss in the event of default. Table 13 provides geographic detail on past due and nonperforming loans.

Table 14 shows the amount of the allowance for credit losses by loan portfolio class. Although the Company determines the amount of each element of the allowance separately and considers this process to be an important credit management tool, the entire allowance for credit losses is available for the entire loan portfolio. The actual losses incurred can vary significantly from the estimated amounts.

Management evaluates the appropriateness of the allowance for credit losses on a quarterly basis. The allowance considers expected losses for the remaining lives of the applicable assets, inclusive of expected recoveries. Multiple economic scenarios are considered over a three-year reasonable and supportable forecast period, which includes increasing consideration of historical loss experience over years two and three. After the forecast period, the Company fully reverts to long-term historical loss experience, adjusted for prepayments and characteristics of the current loan and lease portfolio, to estimate losses over the remaining life of the portfolio. The economic scenarios are updated at least quarterly and are designed to provide a range of reasonable estimates, from better to worse than current expectations. Refer to “Management’s Discussion and Analysis-Analysis and Determination of the Allowance for Credit Losses” in the Annual Report and Form 10-Q for further discussion on the evaluation of the allowance for credit losses.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

The following information appears in accordance with the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995:

This Pillar 3 Disclosures document contains forward-looking statements about the Company. Statements that are not historical or current facts, including statements about beliefs and expectations, are forward-looking statements and are based on the information available to, and assumptions and estimates made by, management as of the date hereof. These forward-looking statements cover, among other things, future economic conditions and the anticipated future revenue, expenses, financial condition, asset quality, capital and liquidity levels, plans, prospects and operations of the Company. Forward-looking statements often use words such as “anticipates,” “targets,” “expects,” “hopes,” “estimates,” “projects,” “forecasts,” “intends,” “plans,” “goals,” “believes,” “continue” and other similar expressions or future or conditional verbs such as “will,” “may,” “might,” “should,” “would” and “could.”

Forward-looking statements involve inherent risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those set forth in forward-looking statements, including the following risks and uncertainties:

- Deterioration in general business and economic conditions or turbulence in domestic or global financial markets, which could adversely affect U.S. Bancorp’s revenues and the values of its assets and liabilities, reduce the availability of funding to certain financial institutions, lead to a tightening of credit, and increase stock price volatility;
- Turmoil and volatility in the financial services industry, including failures or rumors of failures of other depository institutions, which could affect the ability of depository institutions, including U.S. Bank National Association, to attract and retain depositors, and could affect the ability of financial services providers, including U.S. Bancorp, to borrow or raise capital;
- Increases in Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation assessments due to bank failures;
- Actions taken by governmental agencies to stabilize the financial system and the effectiveness of such actions;
- Changes to regulatory capital, liquidity and resolution-related requirements applicable to large banking organizations in response to recent developments affecting the banking sector;
- Changes to statutes, regulations, or regulatory policies or practices, including capital and liquidity requirements, and the enforcement and interpretation of such laws and regulations, and U.S. Bancorp’s ability to address or satisfy those requirements and other requirements or conditions imposed by regulatory entities;

- Changes in interest rates;
- Increases in unemployment rates;
- Deterioration in the credit quality of its loan portfolios or in the value of the collateral securing those loans;
- Risks related to originating and selling mortgages, including repurchase and indemnity demands, and related to U.S. Bancorp's role as a loan servicer;
- Impacts of current, pending or future litigation and governmental proceedings;
- Increased competition from both banks and non-banks;
- Effects of climate change and related physical and transition risks;
- Changes in customer behavior and preferences and the ability to implement technological changes to respond to customer needs and meet competitive demands;
- Breaches in data security;
- Failures or disruptions in or breaches of U.S. Bancorp's operational, technology or security systems or infrastructure, or those of third parties;
- Failures to safeguard personal information;
- Impacts of pandemics, including the COVID-19 pandemic, natural disasters, terrorist activities, civil unrest, international hostilities and geopolitical events;
- Impacts of supply chain disruptions, rising inflation, slower growth or a recession;
- Failure to execute on strategic or operational plans;
- Effects of mergers and acquisitions and related integration;
- Effects of critical accounting policies and judgments;
- Effects of changes in or interpretations of tax laws and regulations;
- Management's ability to effectively manage credit risk, market risk, operational risk, compliance risk, strategic risk, interest rate risk, liquidity risk and reputation risk; and
- The risks and uncertainties more fully discussed in the section entitled "Risk Factors" of the 2022 Annual Report and subsequent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

In addition, U.S. Bancorp's acquisition of MUB presents risks and uncertainties, including, among others: the risk that the cost savings, any revenue synergies and other anticipated benefits of the acquisition may not be realized or may take longer than anticipated to be realized; and the possibility that the combination of MUB with U.S. Bancorp, including the integration of MUB, may be more costly or difficult to complete than anticipated or have unanticipated adverse results.

In addition, factors other than these risks also could adversely affect the Company's results, and the reader should not consider these risks to be a complete set of all potential risks or uncertainties. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on any forward-looking statements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date hereof, and the Company undertakes no obligation to update them in light of new information or future events.

Securitization
Qualitative: (a)	The general qualitative disclosure requirement with respect to securitization (including synthetic securitizations), including a discussion of: (1) The bank holding company's objectives for securitizing assets, including the extent to which these activities transfer credit risk of the underlying exposures away from the bank holding company to other entities and including the type of risks assumed and retained with securitization activity; (2) The nature of the risks (e.g. liquidity risk) inherent in the securitized assets; (3) The roles played by the bank holding company in the securitization process and an indication of the extent of the bank holding company's involvement in each of them; (4) The processes in place to monitor changes in the credit and market risk of securitization exposures including how those processes differ for securitization exposures; (5) The bank holding company's policy for mitigating the credit risk retained through securitization and securitization exposures; and (6) The risk-based capital approaches that the bank holding company follows for its securitization exposures including the type of securitization exposure to which each approach applies.	2022 Annual Report: • MD&A Corporate Risk Profile (Commitments, Contingent Liabilities and Other Contractual Obligations) (Unaudited) Form 10-O (Unaudited): • MD&A Corporate Risk Profile (Commitments, Contingent Liabilities and Other Contractual Obligations) Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Securitization	10-11	2022 Annual Report pg 54 Form 10-O pg 26
(b)	A list of: (1) The type of securitization SPEs that the bank holding company, as sponsor, uses to securitize third-party exposures. The bank holding company must indicate whether it has exposure to these SPEs, either on- or off- balance sheet; and (2) Affiliated entities: (i) That the bank holding company manages or advises; and (ii) That invest either in the securitization exposures that the bank holding company has securitized or in securitization SPEs that the bank holding company sponsors.	Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Securitization	10-11
(c)	Summary of the bank holding company's accounting policies for securitization activities, including: (1) Whether the transactions are treated as sales or financings; (2) Recognition of gain-on-sale; (3) Methods and key assumptions and inputs applied in valuing retained or purchased interests; (4) Changes in methods and key assumptions and inputs from the previous period for valuing retained interests and impact of the changes; (5) Treatment of synthetic securitizations; (6) How exposures intended to be securitized are valued and whether they are recorded under subpart E of this part; and (7) Policies for recognizing liabilities on the balance sheet for arrangements that could require the bank holding company to provide financial support for securitized assets.	Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Securitization	10-11
(d)	An explanation of significant changes to any of the quantitative information set forth below since the last reporting period.	Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Securitization	10-11
Quantitative: (e)	The total outstanding exposures securitized by the bank holding company in securitizations that meet the operational criteria in §.141 (categorized into traditional/synthetic), by underlying exposure type separately for securitizations of third-party exposures for which the bank acts only as sponsor.	Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Table 6-- Securitization	11
(f)	For exposures securitized by the bank holding company in securitizations that meet the operational criteria in §.141: (1) Amount of securitized assets that are impaired/past due categorized by exposure type; and (2) Losses recognized by the bank holding company during the current period categorized by exposure type.	Basel Pillar 3 Disclosures (Unaudited): Table 6-- Securitization	11
